

NEW YORK BOWLERS WON IN TWO-MEN CONTEST

White and Chadwick Took Five Out of Eight Games from Erdman and Jo Smith, the Crack Brooklyn Pair.

Surrounded by a crowd seven tiers deep along the side lines of the Grand Central Academy in Brooklyn last night White and Chadwick, of Manhattan, won five out of eight games against Erdman and Jo Smith, a crack team of Brooklyn bowlers. The Brooklyn contingent had made favorable impressions in the preliminary practice before the match was called for the match.

It was a close struggle throughout and the averages, barring such unfortunate bowlers as had come in "spike" were considerably above the usual figures in match games.

After the match the winners smiled a desire to meet any two men team in Brooklyn and a match with Jimmy Smith and Bert Allen is among the possibilities for the near future. Such a contest would excite great interest, as the Brooklyn team is the one now in great form.

The score last night was as follows:

White	204	White	214
Chadwick	200	Chadwick	240
Total	404	Total	454
Erdman	170	Erdman	178
Smith	191	Smith	191
Total	361	Total	369

White and Chadwick won five out of eight games. The Brooklyn team is the one now in great form.

LOUD TALK IN BROOKLYN.

What's the matter with Manhattan bowlers? Is a question asked in nearly every prominent alley in Brooklyn. The question is brought out by the frequent challenges made by Bert Allen, champion Jimmy Smith and other Brooklyn stars who are anxious to match with any of the Manhattan bowlers in individual or team matches.

In the Harlem Circle tournament yesterday afternoon White and Chadwick defeated Erdman and Smith 5 to 3. White's score was 214 and Chadwick's 240. Erdman and Smith scored 178 and 191 respectively.

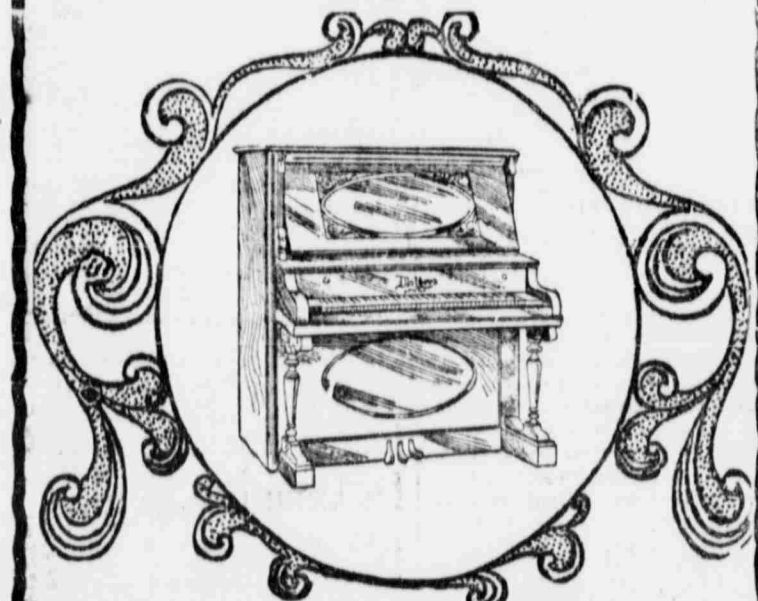

The Brooklyn team is the one now in great form.

WOMEN IN MATCH GAME.

Women in five-men teams from Manhattan and Brooklyn are soon to meet in a match contest which will be a great event. The contest will be held at the Grand Central Academy in Brooklyn. The teams are composed of the following players:

White	204	White	214
Chadwick	200	Chadwick	240
Erdman	170	Erdman	178
Smith	191	Smith	191
Total	404	Total	454

Whits, of Manhattan, Watts is the member of the Allston alleys, on Twenty-third street.

The three-men team tournament begins at the Manhattan alleys, Nov. 3. Entries are now being received, and several strong clubs have been found in the list.

The Croton and Portline three-men teams in the Portline League will roll a match game at the Portline alleys, Kew-Forest, Nov. 3 and 4, and Third Avenue, Sunday afternoon, Nov. 12.

Jimmy Vachels, who recently averaged 217 for five games, Trunks, the Philadelphia champion, Jimmy Smith, Brooklyn champion and challenger of all American bowlers, and the Brooklyn champion, Jimmy Smith, and Johnny Nelson, of 10,000, are all now below the medium height, 5 feet 10 inches, and a very interesting fact connected with the sport of bowling, although it is not a very interesting fact, is that it does not appear that the heavyweight figure is a champion.

Secretaries of bowling tournaments in Greater New York are requested to send schedules to the "Bowling Editor" of the Evening World.
